

2010-11 Concert Season

Battle Creek

Symphony

Anne Harrigan
Music Director

Saturday, October 23

Genius Revealed: Dvořák's New World

This 70-minute concert event packs a towering masterpiece, Dvořák's "Symphony for the New World," with a "behind the music" look at its creation. Through captivating music and images, learn the story of an enigmatic genius and his journey that would change classical music forever.

All concerts 7:30pm at
W. K. Kellogg Auditorium

For the best seats
at the best prices, subscribe!

Music Center Tickets 269-565-2199 www.BattleCreekSymphony.org

October 23

Saturday, December 18

Christmas Magic

This kaleidoscope of Christmas joy features Shari Rarick dancers, harpist Sylvia Norris, singers, and more heartwarming fun for the young and the young at heart.

Saturday, February 5

Cirque de la Symphonie

High-flying aerialist Alexander Streltsov is back by popular demand, bringing a team of jugglers and acrobats for an evening of gorgeous music and non-stop, breath-taking action.

December 18

February 5

March 19

April 30

Saturday, March 19

An American in Paris

Journey with Gershwin to the jazz and smoke of Roaring 20's Paris. Then enter the moody world of Rachmaninoff's Symphonic Dances. Plus, get a sneak preview of the Battle Creek Boychoir and Girls Chorus performance adventure to Paris.

Saturday, April 30

Simply Sinatra

Start spreading the news: Ol' Blue Eyes is back, in the silky voice of Steve Lippia. "The finest young singer in the last 25 years" according to Sinatra's manager, Mr. Lippia has thrilled audiences from major concert halls to the Las Vegas Strip.